

present Ken Lackman's

Big Picture Teaching

An ESL Teacher Development Workshop

Fresh from IATEFL 2017, this popular workshop will show you:

- ◆ how to teach the entire tense system in less than an hour
- ◆ how to teach the entire conditional system in about 30 minutes
- ◆ how to teach the phonological system in less than 2 hours
- ◆ how to teach word formation in less than an hour
- ◆ how to apply "Big Picture Teaching" to your existing curriculum/coursebook
- ◆ why we should be taking a big picture approach.

$20*

5 classroom activities!

 special 2008 recession pricing!

Approved for TESL Ontario PD credits

Limited to 27 participants

To reserve, email klackman@kenlackman.com.

Registration deadline is the day before the session.

Saturday May 13 12:30 – 2:00

English Central

60 St. Clair Avenue East

Feel free to browse the bookstore and talk to other teachers in a friendly, informal setting.

You're invited to stay after the workshop for our first Networking Party, in the bookstore until 2:30 and then off to the pub until ?.

Ken Lackman spent seven years in Prague teaching English and developing teaching materials for The Caledonian School. He left in 2002 to do the DELTA course in Wroclaw, Poland before returning to Toronto in 2003. After five years as Director of Studies at EF Toronto, he left to pursue a career as a freelance teacher trainer and writer. He has had several articles published in English Teaching Professional including Big Picture Teaching, which is featured on the cover of the current edition. He also works as a CELTA trainer at Greystone College and an ESL instructor at Ryerson University.

Methods and activities for more effective teaching with less preparation